

THIEF AT THE MINT HAS NOT YET BEEN TRAPPED.

Government Officials Are Not Yet Ready to Place the Suspect Under Arrest—Theories of the Secret Service Men Have Not Yet Been Made Public—
Cole and Dimmick Talk.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—No arrests have been made in connection with the shortage of $30,000 in the mint and speculation as to the real culprit is of a varied sort.

So far the Government officials who are working on the case have not divulged their theories and if their suspicions have centered on any one man they are not as yet prepared to place him under arrest.

DIMMICK'S STATEMENT.
Walter N. Dimmick, chief clerk in the mint, and a resident of this city, says:

"This is the first I have heard that Cole has tried to implicate me. He is mistaken in saying I knew the combination of that vault. I see what his game is. He is trying to shift some of the responsibility to my shoulders. Well, I guess it is up to both of us for that matter, and I expect we will be telling our stories in the Government courts in a few days.

"I will not be surprised to be arrested at any time now. I suppose the responsibility for the whole affair is up to me and Mr. Cole.

"I reiterate, however, that I never knew the combination to the vault after it was changed by Mr. Cole."

CASHER COLE'S STATEMENT.
William K. Cole, Cashier of the Mint, says:

"I am not surprised to be arrested at any time now. I suppose the responsibility for the whole affair is up to me and Mr. Cole."

THE MILITIA MAY NOW BE CALLED OUT.

Looks as Though There Will Be a Crash in the Telluride Mines.

Union Demands Are Posted and the Men Will Now Stand Firm.

DENVER, Colo., July 5.—The situation at the Smuggler Union Mine at Telluride is reported unchanged this morning, the miners being still in possession of the property. No further developments are likely until the commission appointed by Governor Orman consisting of Judge Theron Stevens, of Ouray, Lieutenant Governor D. C. Coates, who is Secretary of the State Federation of Labor, and John Murphy, Attorney for the Federation, arrived at Telluride and conferred with representatives of the Miners' Union and the Smuggler-Union Company.

The train on which they left Denver is due at Telluride at 4 p. m. today. Governor Orman declares that if the mine is not abandoned by the strikers immediately after his demand to that effect is presented to them by the Commission, he will order the State Militia and use whatever force is necessary to restore the property to its owners. The Commission is empowered to make a full investigation of the trouble at Telluride and endeavor to bring about an amicable settlement.

Governor Orman received the following telegram this morning: "Telluride, midnight: Gov. J. B. Orman, Denver.—I have just seen Senator Buckley. He says chance of settlement at morning. If not settled by noon he will join with me in appropriate suggestions." (Signed) "S. G. McMullin, District Attorney."

A special to the Post from Telluride says:

"The Miners' Union has just delivered its final ultimatum to the Smuggler-Union management. It is:

"The Miners' Union demands that all men working contracts for a longer period than ten days shall receive at least $3 a day for the entire time employed. The Secretary of the Union must have the privilege of going upon the ground as Secretary, but not to interfere with the work during working hours, and further, that the company must not discriminate against union men."

AMERICANS BEATEN OUT BY THE ENGLISH CREW.

Pennsylvania Boys Made a Gallant Struggle But They Gave Out at the Finish—Leander Crew Led Them Over the Line by One Length—Terrific Cheering When Line Was Reached.

HENLEY, Eng., July 5.—To the disappointment of all the Americans at Henley, the Leander Rowing Club crew this morning defeated the crew of the University of Pennsylvania in the final for the Grand Challenge Cup. There was bright sunshine and puffy cross-winds blew from the Bucks shore, slightly favoring the Leanders' station. The followers of the British crew evinced the greatest confidence, and Leander money was everywhere available but this confidence never exceeded anything beyond even money. The Pennsylvanians' friends picked up several hundred pounds and a Philadelphia occupant of a houseboat is said to have invested $500 in favor of his crew.

At the Boathouse.
The Pennsylvanians reached their moorhouse at 11 o'clock apparently as fit as possible, while many of the followers of the red and blue showed marks of the intense strain of the final minutes. The crew stripped, chatted and laughed as coolly as though going out for practice.

Ellis Ward, the American coach, placed a miniature American flag upon the rod of his boat as the coxswain came to the boathouse, and said to Smith:

"Keep Ahead, My Boy."

"Keep that as far ahead, my boy, as you can."

The following are the names of the two crews:

Leander—C. A. Willis, bow; H. J. Funnell, W. Paddy Ward, G. M. Matland, C. D. Barnell, J. E. Payne, C. J. G. Goltie, F. B. Etherington-Smith, stroke; C. S. MacLaine, coxswain.

Pennsylvania—R. R. Zane, bow; R. H. Eizenbrey, F. L. Eizenbrey, S. Crowther, J. A. H. Flicker, G. W. Allen, W. G. Gardiner, J. P. Gardiner, stroke; L. J. Smith, coxswain.

They Are Off.
Both crews at the start showed no trace of nervousness and were sent away in capital style, the Pennsylvanians rowing 43 to the minute and the Leanders rowing 42. At the end of Temple Island the Americans led by a third of a length. At Fawley the time was 3 minutes 25.5 seconds.

BRANDES SAYS HE SWORE TO SHIELD HIS WIFE.

The Murderer Says He Is in Possession of a Secret That He Will Carry With Him to the Grave—took an Oath Over the Dead Body of His Daughter—He Will Serve His Time.

"Over the dead body of my child I swore to my wife that I would shield her. I have kept my word. There are secrets in my bosom which will be carried to the grave with me."

The foregoing statement was made by W. A. Brandes, who is now confined at the County Jail under sentence of ten years for killing his 13-year-old daughter, Lillian. Continuing, he said:

"When I told my wife that morning that the body of the child would have to be examined at the Coroner's inquest she broke down and cried. I did not know then that the body was covered with bruises. Throughout both of my trials I have not said one word against my wife. It would have been cowardly for me to have done so. I permitted the blame to rest upon myself, but I am innocent of that crime. I swear it before God."

"I loved my daughter too dearly to have killed her. It was a father's love that impelled me to bring her to my home at Berkeley to live. She and my wife could not get along together. I knew that my wife and daughter quarreled frequently and I was thinking of sending the child away."

"Had Harvey not committed suicide there might have been some startling revelations at this last trial. He was afraid to appear on the witness stand. I could make statements that would startle the world, but my honor and duty to my family prevents me from doing so. I will bear my punishment. The secrets in my bosom will be carried with me to the grave."

"The only thing that has kept me up during all this time is the knowledge of my innocence. Had I been guilty I could not have borne such an ordeal as I passed through. I have been accused of being stony-hearted and not being affected by the testimony in regard to my daughter's death. I will say that it was not lack of emotion that kept me impassive. It was my determination not to break down and the consciousness of my innocence. Many times I could have cried during the trial, but what would the world have said. People would have declared that I was feigning sorrow to get sympathy and that I was shedding crocodile tears. I was determined to stand my trial like a man. I have no fear of any man. I can look any man straight in the eye with a clear conscience. When I have served my time I will come back here and live down the feeling that has been raised against me."

When informed of the critical condition of Judge Ogden, Brandes said: "I am sorry for him. He criticized me severely, but I cannot blame him, considering the testimony that was given against me. I will say that the noises heard in my house by the neighbors were the result of a quarrel I had with Harvey. I drove him from the house. My wife and daughter tried to stop the quarrel."

MADE A VOW AND KEPT IT.

Remarkable Case of Mrs. George

Smith—Husband Wants
Her Arrested.

Because his wife has refused to step outside of her home on Hollis street the past sixteen months, George Smith, the husband, believes her insane and mutes the request of Acting Judge Judge Quinn this morning that a warrant be issued for her arrest and that she be examined by the Lunacy Commissioners. The warrant, however, was not issued, but Smith declares that he will take some other step of having his wife examined for insanity.

"One Sunday, just sixteen months ago, my wife went to early mass, and when she returned home," said Mr. Smith, "she vowed she'd never step outside her door again as long as she lives."

"And she has kept her vow. Ever since then and through all these sixteen months she has retired to leave her home. Everything we use in the house in the way of necessities I have had to bring home. She gets up every morning and prepares my breakfast and arouses me and I have no complaint to offer so far as that is concerned, but she simply refuses to be seen outside of her house, and she can't be in her right mind."

FRUITVALE PROSPECTS ARE NOW VERY GOOD.

The Fruitvale Paraffine Oil Company, which recently started out to demonstrate the fact that there is oil in the immediate vicinity of Oakland, is now putting forth energetic efforts with the hope of attaining the end in view. A standard rig has been secured and the work of drilling to reach the oil deposits has been commenced with an energy which is characteristic of the promoters.

The surrounding country is full of evidence of oil. Delvings have brought to the surface shale and oil sand which show, beyond a doubt, the existence of oil in quantities which will undoubtedly be remunerative. As the work progresses the outpouring of gas, which has long been a feature of that section, becomes pronounced, a circumstance which gives pleasure to the promoters. It is believed that the standard rig will be another sure index of a liberal supply of the lubricant and illuminant of which the company is in search.

MAKES AN ANSWER TO FRED BECKER'S CHARGE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In regard to Mr. Becker's statement that he discharged me for incompetency, I would like to make a few remarks and vindicate myself before the public.

Mr. Becker, when I asked him Saturday evening for his reason for discharging me, would not tell the same, except to say that I belong to a union and an account of the same. I had to make a strike. It took him just two days to think up a reason that would be detrimental to me in seeking other employment. Now, when the strike was declared, I was delivering to 150 or 160 customers. When I went back to work, I succeeded in bringing back all but four customers, and of those one had moved, two had been complaining of the way their meat was coming for months before and the fourth got a new butcher. Mr. Becker, of course, says they came back on my (Mr. Becker's) account. I went over part of my route Wednesday, and out of twenty-four customers I interviewed twenty-one gave me orders to be filled elsewhere. Surely that does not show me as being very incompetent. Mr. Becker also says I am no butcher. He knew that before he hired me, as he offered me a job on a block over five months before. When he hired me and I told him I belonged to the union he told me he would sooner lose $1,000 than to see me a union man.

A few words regarding the house in which I live. It was only two months ago that Mrs. Becker wanted my wife to rent the whole house and promised to act rooms for same and rent $25 for the whole place. Since the strike has come and gone things have changed. The first thing Mr. Becker had against me was when he discharged Joe Lyons, who was rooming at the house with me. The next day they sent down for the bed in Lyons' room. They thought that I would have to put Lyons out, but we simply had another bed and Mr. Lyons is still there. Now, instead of begging me to take the whole house for $25, they want $25 for one-half. Quite a change.

Regarding picket duty in front of his place, I have to say that I have been picked down a man who was hauling oil for the place. Mr. Becker has made the remark that he intends starving me and my family to death, as he has also said of others, he having a snap shot of every one who was in his shop. These are the men selected, who he claims, will work for him or any other corporation on the coast if he can help it. He has made the remark that he will bust my union. He has asked several of his men to resign from our union, and one or two I believed were told to do so.

Very truly yours,
Vice President Butcher's Union.

CREMATION.

The Odd Fellows' Cemetery, San Francisco. It has expended nearly $200,000 on buildings, plant and grounds. Has very fine lawns. A body is consumed without heat with flame. Every part reduced to ashes by intense heat.

It has no stock nor stockholders. It does not divide profits. It aims to make its receipts equal expenditures. All profits are expended on the care of its property and the perfection of its works.

Prices for cremation are: Infants under ten, $10; ten to fifteen, $15; members of societies and associations and their families, $30; all others, $35; which prices include a copper receptacle for the ashes, and the use of the chapel and organ. As soon as business permits, charges will be reduced. A proposition to lower the cost of cremation to $9 is under consideration. A special arrangement is now being perfected so that a body sent from any place in the State of California will be cremated at a total expense not to exceed the above rates.

And all this is NOT FOR THE ACQUISITION OF PROFIT, but in the promotion of funeral reform and for the benefit of the widow and orphan. If necessary for the good place, we will place agents in Oakland, Alameda and San Jose, to carry on our work.

HERE IT IS—OUR ANNUAL JULY SWEEP

A BRUSH WITH THE BROOMS OF REDUCTION

TWELVE MONTHS AGO—or during the month of July of last year—we inaugurated a sale, which the purchasing public of Oakland will surely remember. TUB TRUTHS.

A DROP of ink will color a whole glass of water. It is an inch of yeast which makes a pan of bread rise, and a single cake of soap containing unabsorbed alkali can ruin a hundred times its cost in laces and fine embroidery. After all, it is wise to take such risks with common soap? Of course you can get along without Ivory Soap. So can a wagon without axle grease—but it goes hard.

DECISION IN THE NARROW GAUGE CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Judge Morrow in the United States Circuit Court this morning rendered an opinion in the suit of the Central Trust Company of New York against the California and Nevada Railroad Company. He confirmed the report of the Master in Chancery. A decree of foreclosure was entered and the bonds will be sold. As to the suit in intervention of Chas. H. Smith, who holds 304 bonds of the company, Judge Morrow decides that the bonds shall be sold and that his share of the proceeds of the sale will be determined later.

Considerable interest has been taken in the suit by railroad men on account of the fact that the road is likely to become a part of the Santa Fe system. It is said the directors of that concern were anxious to buy the road, but a clear title could not be obtained until the conclusion of the suit, which was decided today. The road has its terminus at Fruit Vale station, in Alameda county.

POET THREW HIS ARMS AROUND W. S. HARLOW.

Joaquin Miller and Under Sheriff Harlow are warm friends of forty years. When the literary exercises were over at the High School and Miller with other gentlemen who had taken part were descending from the platform, quite a number of admirers of the poet crowded around him to give him a pleasant greeting. Mr. Harlow was present and when his old friend saw him he threw his arms around his neck and embraced him as a long-lost brother. "This is my old friend of forty years, gentlemen," explained the poet to those who witnessed the incident.

Announces Today That He Does Not Intend to Sue for a Divorce.

A story has been in circulation to the effect that Millionaire Joseph Boardman was taking testimony of friends to the effect that Mrs. Walker, mother of his 21-year-old wife, had caused trouble between himself and wife, and as a result he was about to sue for divorce.

Among those whose depositions it is alleged were taken is Alexander Pullerian, a miner who is now a patient of the East Bay Sanitarium.

Boardman was seen by a TRIBUNE reporter this morning and spoken to on the subject. He denied that he intended to sue for divorce, as also that there was any truth in the story about trouble between himself and wife.

"I am not going to sue for a divorce. Everything is harmonious now in the house."

Oakland Tribune
FRIDAY.....JULY 5, 1901.
OAKLAND ASSERTS ITSELF.

Citizens of Oakland can take a just pride in the way the national birthday was celebrated in this city, and a little self gratification is not only permissible but entirely appropriate on this occasion. From every point of view the celebration was entirely creditable. This result is valuable because it is instructive. It illustrates what may be accomplished by united effort. It demonstrates that only the supineness of its own inhabitants relegates Oakland to a subordinate and dependent position.

To advance in the dignity of independent municipal life it is only necessary for them to take the initiative vigorously and "gang their ain gait" forward. That is what has been done this year successfully and creditably. On the occasion of the visit of the Presidential party Oakland showed what it could do in the way of decorating and arranging a suitable reception. It is safe to say that no city in California made so good a showing for the amount of money expended, and none more worthy of the honest pride of its citizens. Everybody recognized that it was a good thing. It showed that the people of Oakland could get together and could cordially co-operate in projects for civic display or municipal progress.

But the celebration of the Fourth was even better. It was well planned and well executed, and was a success in every respect. The decorations and the parade made an attractive street pageant that was enjoyed by residents and visitors alike. The regatta on Lake Merritt was a notable feature of the occasion. The thousands who lined the shores could not fail to be struck with the natural beauties of the lake, and the great possibilities for its improvement. They could easily see what an advertisement it could be made for the adornment of the city. And the regatta itself shows how the lake can be utilized to minister to the sports and pleasures of our people.

The literary exercises showed what a thoroughly patriotic affair the celebration was. We did not go abroad for talent or inspiration. An original poem was read by its author, who has been identified with Oakland for many years and who enjoys a reputation in the world of letters that extends beyond the seas and into many lands. An eloquent divine, the pastor of an Oakland church, delivered the oration. It was able, thoughtful, scholarly and entirely worthy of the theme and the occasion. It rounded out the various exercises of the day in a fitting way by presenting something to think soberly about when the gaieties of the day have vanished from the memory.

It would not be proper to let the occasion pass without speaking a word of praise for the gentlemen on the several committees who labored so zealously and intelligently to make the celebration the unqualified success it was. They deserve to be thanked and congratulated. Through their efforts several thousand were kept at home to witness a better celebration than they could see elsewhere, while several thousand visitors from the surrounding country were attracted here to note what Oakland could do when she really tried. In a business way they have benefited the city, and have given its inhabitants a larger idea of its importance and a greater pride in its capabilities. The thanks extended to the committees imply congratulations to the public.

The shirt waist man should not be frowned upon nowadays; in fact, he should be envied rather than condemned. We are fortunate in only having a temperature of 60 degrees, as against 100 in the East, but it is bad enough as it is, and everyone is entitled to dodge the heat the best way he knows how.

With both the challenging and defending yachts beaten by the corresponding boats that participated in the test last time, the race this year becomes somewhat of a second-rate event. However, as long as we win that is satisfaction enough, and there seems little doubt that we will, in view of the latest showing of the Shamrock.

An Oakland deckhand has filed a petition in bankruptcy with liabilities of $170. He seems to have mastered the art of running in a cold deck on his creditors occasionally.

Big bluffs are said to surround the new mining camp at Yellow River, Alaska. Allusion is probably made to the poker games that are running there.

Six hundred deaths were caused in New York alone by the recent hot spell. Talk about the plague, it isn't in the same class with the torrid destroyer.

LIVERMORE IS RIGHT IN LINE.

Grand Celebration Held in the Capital of Murray Township—Parade Was the Feature of the Day — Pleasanton Takes Part in the Festivities — Hon. Wm. McDonald the Orator.

LIVERMORE, July 5.—Twice Livermore has held a celebration on July 4th, within the past three years, and twice has she covered herself with glory. One year ago, with a liberality which could not be exceeded, she joined with Pleasanton in her celebration of the Fourth of July and the result a procession and a day of pleasure which the Livermore and the Amador Valleys had never before known.

JOINT CELEBRATION.

Yesterday Pleasanton returned the compliment. There was a joint celebration of the sister towns in which Livermore extended wide her welcoming arms and received from without her friends from Pleasanton and those from other parts of the county.

DECORATIONS.

Nearly every business place in Livermore is painted white. As a consequence, in the sunlight, the business center presents a most attractive appearance. Yesterday, however, the whiteness of the buildings acted simply as the ground for decorative work in the national colors which had never been excited, circumstances considered, in any city in the history of California.

There was, in fact, not a place of business in the town which was not decorated. The decoration was artistic in the extreme and in some instances, the skill and good taste displayed would have done credit to the people and decorators of the metropolis.

COLORS UP.

Among the places noted in this respect were the Germania Hotel, D. F. Bernal, E. Donahue, Russ House, Callaghan & O'Brien, Sweeney & Son, Livermore Bakery, N. D. Dutcher, A. M. Bridges, Livermore Herald, Bank of Livermore, M. La-faille, Livermore Hotel, Singer Machine Company, Ryan Brothers, Telephone Exchange, M. S. Anthony, P. McKeaney, James Olsen, Victor & Harris, E. Pronzini, McKown & Mess, Johnson and Emminger, Palace Restaurant, Mack & Company, The Fashion Salon, Fred Mally's, Pioneer Barber Shop, Mirror Shaving Parlor, Livermore Brewery, Colombo Saloon, Richard Rees, Fountain Saloon, T. J. Vandell & Son, Adolph Grisel, Frank A. Traverso, Washington Hotel, E. Day, Commercial Hotel, Ansper Brothers, Union Ice Company, Farmers' Hotel, Joe's Place, Charles E. Moore, John Barry, Mrs. M. S. Worden, The Mint Saloon, Livermore Water & Power Company, Livermore Cash Grocery, Marx's, Mary Callahan, Bay State Mercantile Company, C. A. McClain, J. S. Williams, Frank Fennell, A. Blumberg, Free Library, H. W. Farmer, L. H. Smith, The Echo office, Miss Lenhart, A. W. Feldler, Jacob Rees, George Beck, Livermore Commercial Company, Post Office, McLeod & Wright, McLeod & Sangmaster, P. H. McKiever, John Aylward.

THE PROCESSION.

The celebration was extended over the whole day, the principal feature in the morning being the parade. The procession was on regulation time and moved with commendable precision, the people being saved the tedious waits which too frequently test the patience of people on such occasions. The procession was in charge of Grand Marshal Penson and a corps of capable aides, who took an exceeding amount of business in the undertaking. The aides were: A. W. More of Tesla; Lee Wells of Dublin; F. Schaefer of Pleasanton; H. B. Bruner, A. W. Feldler, T. E. Knox and J. C. Hayes of Livermore.

Mr. Feldler rode a jet black charger, which was graceful and perfect in every movement and which enabled Mr. Feldler to display his horsemanship in a most satisfactory manner.

Mr. Hayes was garbed after the style of a well-groomed vaquero.

There was no man, however, more active in the procession than A. F. Schaefer of Pleasanton. Mr. Schaefer had special charge of the representation from Pleasanton. It was one of the proudest moments of his life to give prominence to which he left nothing undone and as a consequence he was heartily commended.

The procession was led by the Fifth Regiment Band of Oakland, which played music which fired the hearts of the onlookers.

Company I, Fifth Regiment, N. G. C., the local military organization, and under whose auspices the celebration was gotten up, appeared in blue shirts, trousers, felt hats, canteen and haversack and marched with commendable precision. They were in command of Carl M. Warner, First Lieutenant J. F. Summers, Second Lieutenant J. H. Hunter.

The Native Sons were represented by a float which contained the outline of a bear of immense proportions.

GODDESS OF LIBERTY.

The union of States, now more commemorated than ever, was beautifully represented in the traditional manner by a young lady representing the incarnation of the Star-Eyed Goddess of Liberty. The goddess was impersonated by Miss Daisy Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Barker of Olivina vineyard. The selection was appropriate and popular. Miss Barker was an ideal personification of the Goddess of Liberty.

ROSEBUDS.

Miss Barker was surrounded by a perfect hower of rosebuds of tender years, representing the galaxy of States. They had ample quarters on an immense float drawn by four horses which were skilfully handled by Dave McDonald. The interesting little representatives of the several States, each of whom were a yachting cap of red, were as follows: Bernice Bernal, Margery Ryan, Josephine Demas, Emily Mitchell, Helen Messa, Dorothea Lassen, Blanche Demas, Winona Hubbard, Marie Wood, Margery Stone, Henrietta Wagner, Marian Wagner, Pearl Anderson, Valentine Latten, Alice Gallagher, Mary Kelly, Marguerite Mark, Rose Fennell, Phillomena Logan, Selma Miguel, Pearl Miguel, Anita Aylward, Hazel Horton, Edith Connell, Mabel Connell, Inez Logan, Marguerite Logan, Etta Thompson, Zelma McVicar, Lois La Franz, Josie Winegar, Hazel Norman, Susie Kelley, Alma Thorn, Hazel Dutcher, Maile La Franz, May Kelley, Margaret Gallagher, Florence Brock, Eva McDonald, Nellie McDonald, Ella Bowles, Anna Bowles.

Mrs. J. Mitchell drove a spirited pair of fillies in a phaeton decorated in every part in a blaze of geranium red. The harness was red, the vehicle was red and the occupants were attired in perfect harmony with the outer furnishings.

A little dog cart drawn by a pony and driven by little Miss Zylph Bernal and Dollie McKown was also a feature of the procession, horse, vehicle and occupants being decorated in silk of shrimp pink.

OLD SOLDIERS.

Hugh Morris Post No. 4, G. A. R., was represented by a float containing half a dozen tents representing Camp Grant. The members of the post rode in a carriage.

FIRE FIGHTERS.

Livermore Fire Department turned out in full force. P. H. McKiever, the Chief, and Charles Beck, the Assistant Chief, rode in a buggy, and Second Assistant Chief H. Dutcher followed in another vehicle. Then came in the following order the Niagara hand engine manned by John Lyttaker, John P. Oleson, J. J. Silver and Joe Brenzell, with a hose cart; Livermore Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, Jack Tucker, George Chipman; John Aylward's steam fire engine, E. F. Aylward engineer, H. P. Hansen, with hose cart.

PLEASANTON.

Pleasanton was represented by what would have been a procession in itself. There was a beautiful many colored arbor float containing the Pleasanton Fire Department accompanied by its hose cart, which was put into the pink of perfection. The float and wheel were manned by W. P. Martin, Chief; Assistant Chief Lee Wells, Foreman Charles Graham, Assistant Foreman Bruce Baker, Wm. Graham, Arthur Ralph, Chas. Pingree, Geo. Walton, Wm. Frost, Geo. Jamieson, Dan Madison, Wm. Ludwig, Neil Nelson.

A MODEL FLOAT.

Then came a float which in idea and execution could not have been improved on anywhere. It was drawn by six horses driven by Charles Graham. It consisted of a pavilion roof supported by brick columns. The cornice was made up of fruits and grain peculiar to the section, and the floor was studded with bales of hops, bags of sugar, a sulky and a miniature racing outfit, with casks of wine, showing up the wonderful fecundity of the section. The draping of the float beneath the table was in spears of wheat and sunburst of color, which were beautifully executed. In the carrying out of the idea suggested Edward Pike, Albert Kieckland, A. F. Schaefer and Geo. W. Myers played an important part. The summit of the float was a cosy shell in which rode little Miss Lucile Lucas.

Pleasanton Trustees, comprising Messrs. Lewis, Nevis, Reimes, Schween and St. Clair rode in a carriage.

Next came Frank Tillman's float representing the Fosse Heu. It was drawn by four horses. On it was an immense range on which Mr. Tillman baked hot cakes and biscuits which he threw to mortals with an appetite all along the line. The float had a canopy, gorgeous in red, white and blue, the sides being emblazoned with shields of the nation, Maltese crosses, flowers, pepper boughs and ferns. The float was cheered all along the line. Among the guests aboard were Elsie Tillman, Francis Tillman, Christina Tillman, Mrs. King, Miss Gladys King, Miss Nunemacher, Miss Annie King, Alma Jensen. The outsiders were the star broncho breakers of the Amador Valley, Tony Neill and Joe Rose.

Following the float was a little cart drawn by the immense St. Bernard "Bruno" of Otto Platt, the head book-keeper of the Liffenthal ranch. In the cart was Mr. Platt's little daughter Anita, who was prettily dressed and who handled the reins like a veteran.

The Pleasanton Band with thirty pieces, with a drum major attired like Uncle Sam, played martial music in fine style.

There were bicycle races and literary exercises in the afternoon, and in the evening there was an electrical display by the Livermore Water and Power Company, the main street being illuminated with red, white and blue lights, more than a thousand bulbs being used. The day closed with a ball in the pavilion.

WM. McDONALD'S ORATION.

Hon. William McDonald was the orator of the day. He delivered a splendid oration and spoke in part as follows:

"Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song.
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong."

"Never in the history of this nation has the hymnal injunction been fraught with deeper significance, or more gladly obeyed, than on this, the one hundred and twenty-first birthday of American independence. Yes, music, the breeze, mortal tongues awake, the rocks have broken their silence, and their echoes are helping to prolong the glad song of freedom which is today being sung all over the civilized world, as the sons and daughters of America gather once more around the altar fires of liberty to commemorate the formation of, and to consecrate themselves anew to the perpetuation of and the upbuilding of a nation which was dedicated to liberty and the equal rights of all."

QUEEN OF NATIONS.

"The nineteenth century has passed away, and at the dawning of the twentieth we find a nation which, as an infant, one hundred and twenty-five years ago, was struggling for an existence opposed by all the black powers of hate and tyrannical greed; but, with naught but freedom's star for her guiding cloud by day and her pillar of fire by night, she gained victory after victory until she triumphed over every foe and now stands before the world arrayed in all her beauty of her womanly grandeur, grateful to an all-wise God for every blessing which He has bestowed upon her, and an heirress to the crown as queen of nations. Today, may her sons and daughters go up together to the serene and secret mountain top, and there pause, and there unite in that reverent exclamation and exultant prayer, 'How beautiful at last are thy tabernacles! What people at last are like unto thee? Peace be within thy palaces and joy within thy gates; the high places are thine, and thou shalt thou stand proudly, innocently and securely.'"

"Then let those who are bold enough dare raise their hands against this nation's flag and see come pouring forth its volunteer defenders, on whom it can rely with perfect safety, and to whom it may point with pride, saying as did the Spartan King of old, 'There go my walls and every man's a stone.' Great, indeed, is this great nation's future, for her people are going to the nation treading the path their fathers trod. We are going to read and reread the farewell address of the Father of our country, and obeying his injunctions, keep clear of all entangling alliances with foreign powers."

My friends all thought I could never recover. I was reduced to 100 pounds. When I was three months along for my third child I was taken with hemorrhage or flooding and came near having a miscarriage from female weakness. For two months I was under the care of my doctor, but was getting weaker all the time until one day I happened to come across one of your little books and I read it through, and the next day I sent and got three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one bottle of 'Pellets.' I improved so fast I continued to take your medicine until baby was born, and he is healthy and all right. My health has been good ever since. I now weigh 165 pounds."

The Heart Cry of the Motherless Maiden.

• Mother, come back from that echoless shore
And take me again in your arms as of yore.

When the mother is taken from the home, the loss falls heavily on each member of the family. But in time kindly Nature heals the wounds, dulls the memory, and comforts the heart. The little girl turns anew to her dolls and her plays and her mother becomes a memory. The real loss that she has sustained comes to her much later in life, when "standing with reluctant feet where womanhood and girlhood meet," she feels the need of a mother's counsel.

She is perplexed about conditions of which she cannot speak to any other. She thinks of the family physician. But the delicate nature shrinks from the questions she might be called upon to answer. And so without counsel or help she drifts along while every day time tightens the fetters of disease.

Young women instinctively know that certain conditions are abnormal. They know that heads and backs were not made to ache. But they do not know where to turn for relief.

ANY MOTHER WOULD SAY what almost every mother knows, that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for the cure of womanly ills. It not only cures headache and backache but it cures the womanly ills which cause these pains.

"I am so much better since I commenced taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Miss Jessie Simmons, of Thurston, Frederick Co., Md. "I am very much improved in health, and feel as though I had a new lease of life. It was just what I needed. Am more than thankful to you for the kindly interest you have taken, and hope that others will find the same benefit from your valuable books and medicines that I have." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not offered as a cure-all. It is a woman's medicine, and it accomplishes perfectly the cure of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity. It dries unhealthy and offensive discharges. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor any other narcotic, and cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

Young women especially do not realize how intimately the general health is related to the health of the delicate womanly organs. When the local diseases are cured by "Favorite Prescription" the general health at once improves. The appetite is restored, sleep is enjoyed, the form rounds out, the cheeks regain the hue of health. Miss Simmons says in the letter as a result of using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription she feels as though she had

"A NEW LEASE ON LIFE."

This is not only a feeling but a fact, as is shown by thousands of testimonials which say "Favorite Prescription" has made a new woman of me."

"I am still improving more and more every day. I am just as well now as I was when I came into the world," writes Mrs. P. A. Graham, of 617 Park Street, New Orleans, La. "I will put it at that, anyway, for I cannot remember ever being a well day since I became a woman (twenty-five years ago), until six months ago when I began the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' They are the best medicines on earth made for women and their complaints. No matter what the disease may be even if called incurable by the doctors. If any suffering woman will write Doctor Pierce he will write her a fatherly letter and give her good advice and if she will follow his instructions will find out in a very short time that she has been mistaken by putting her in home doctors."

Women suffering from diseases of long standing are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All letters are read in private and answered in private, and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed in personal consultations with Dr. Pierce at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. Address correspondence to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A great many women who have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, have expressed their gratification at being able to escape the offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments, considered necessary by some local practitioners. Dr. Pierce's wide experience and wonderful success in the treatment and cure of womanly diseases, enables him to obtain accurate knowledge of diseases by the written statement of the sufferer. In a little over thirty years, assisted by his staff of thirty score of physicians, Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has treated and cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sickly women.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a "Favorite Prescription" as just as "good" does so to obtain the best results profit paid by the sale of less meritorious preparations. Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription," the medicine which makes weak women strong and sick women well.

WHAT MISS GREER THINKS. "I think that your 'Adviser' is a fine book," writes Miss Flora I. Greer, of 107 Howe Street, Akron, Ohio, "and a book that everyone should own. If more people would read it instead of trashy novels there would be healthier women and children than there are today. The book referred to is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It contains 1000 large pages and over 700 illustrations, and is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

him and his band of wild Indians made things hum. Among the redmen were first-Big Chief Rain in the face (Frank Hoffman) and about fifteen braves among whom were: D. J. France, Dr. Powell, John Overmiller, G. S. Langman, Charles Ruppert, Bert Rose, J. T. Koppel, and V. E. Groch of San Jose, and J. A. Day of Santa Clara.

The Indians appeared about seven o'clock in the evening dressed in fantastic costumes and armed with revolvers and guns. From that time on to sleep was an impossibility. They howled and fired guns as they rode through the streets. Along towards midnight the noise quieted down and yesterday the Indians were too tired to again appear as had been their intentions.

OAKLAND MADE GRAND SHOWING

splendid reception so lately accorded President McKinley. He is proud to be a citizen of Oakland. He is keeping pace with the coast cities and is sure to share in the prosperity of the Pacific States through the awakening of the East. The prediction for California is an increasingly golden future, in which Oakland will have honorable part.

"A Grecian philosopher laid it down as a rule of oratory to begin a discussion with an incontrovertible proposition. Acting on this suggestion from the past, I venture to say without fear of successful contradiction that this is the greatest Fourth of July ever celebrated in this century. Being the first time in the history of the world that the beginning of a long series of similar and grander celebrations that shall follow through centuries yet unborn America was spoken of as a magnificent experiment and Macaulay referred that experiment to democracy called America to the twentieth century. America is no longer an experiment, and the twentieth century claims her success and accepts her present place as a permanent factor in the affairs of nations. It is my purpose to review the past briefly, for the day is charged with history as well as noise, and then touching upon present problems to predict the future that seems to be assured."

"It was my good fortune to make frequent pilgrimage to Independence Hall in Philadelphia, where sat the Continental Congress and where the old liberty bell of which this hall is said to be a part, hangs cracked as it is. To visit those halls and to look upon that bell with its inscription, 'Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof,' is to rouse the spirit of patriotism and in the language of Daniel Webster to say 'Thank God I am an American!' Those were great days and those were great men who wrote and signed the Declaration of Independence. All honor to their memory!"

"From the reading of the Declaration I trust that you noticed that liberty was declared to be an inalienable right of man. That by nature we were free and equal. That is an axiom in politics. A self-evident truth that needs only to be announced to be demonstrated. Our forefathers therefore did not become free that Fourth of July. Being free they became independent of oppression, and this is rightly called Independence day. Let me say in this connection that what was a perfectly right principle of action 17 years ago may not be so today. For today, I mean that it would be suicide for a nation to maintain independence to the point of isolation. We are in the era of the brotherhood of man. Each applied internationally becomes the brotherhood of nations. The solidarity of the race is accepted as true. The Englishman and the German-man and the French-man and the American-man have manhood in common. Hence the need of international courts of arbitration as provided by the peace conference. Or, better still, a supreme court of nations, as suggested by Dr. Lyman Abbott, to which all controversial questions between nations might be referred for final adjudication."

"Into this wide-world arena America has been led by the Providence that shapes our ends, rough-hew them as we may. It may be that we have come of age as a nation. A man attains his majority at 21. Perhaps a nation attains full stature and responsibility at 25."

"Let us awake to the vision before us of national opportunity. What is wanted is a new enthusiasm, kindled by the entrancing view before us as we face the future this first Fourth of July in the new century. The picture in the day has suggested the annexation of Canada and England. Why stop there? Why not go on to the annexation of the world, which would be expansion with a vengeance? Only let our hand be no hand of conquest or oppression, not red with blood nor stained with pelf. Let the hand of America be the hand of help, and education, and commerce and civilization and evangelization so that all the world inspired by our presence may look up and give all hail to America the Benefactor."

The speaker was frequently interrupted with applause. At the conclusion of the address the band played "America" and the audience dispersed.

REGATTA ON THE LAKE WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

The regatta on Lake Merritt yesterday was the beginning of a new era for this splendid natural lake. It was a success in every sense of the word, the shores of the lake, and hills being black with people, over 15,000 spectators viewing the boat races which were given under the auspices of the Pacific Athletic Association of the United States.

States, and as an afternoon feature of Oakland's observance of the glorious Fourth. That the success of yesterday's races means other regattas in the future was conceded on all sides.

The races started about 2:30 o'clock. The judges were divided on a pontoon near the stake boat, and at the three-quarter-mile stake, the three-course, surveyed by Surveyor Nussbaumer, being a mile and a half.

LADIES FED THE SOLDIERS UNDER THE WILLOWS.

Thousands of artists were fed under the willows at Lake Merritt yesterday. The ladies did splendid work.

The ladies who took the initiative were Mrs. Flora A. Merrill, Mrs. Rose S. Dorey, Mrs. May Coleman and Mrs. Clara A. Merrill. They were assisted by perhaps a couple of hundred willing workers, and never could visitors fail to be entertained more cheerfully or bountifully.

THE MARDI GRAS PROCESSION LAST NIGHT proved a fitting close to the day's celebration, and together with the announcement that fireworks would this night be fired, drew an enormous crowd to Broadway and the cross streets from Fourteenth to Seventh. It was one packed jam and clutter all the way through including the mile and a half.

The parade of "heralds" led by the indispensable wagons carrying fire and bombs. Clay H. Hawker, gorgeously arrayed in royal robes, was king of the carnival. Following him came the "spirit of 1776" next an integration from the Elks' late circus and minstrel show, and Company A of the 6th Regiment, N. G. C. headed by its band. And these soldiers proved that they could be comical shooters sometimes. From the tops of houses they would shoot dummbells, and suggest a new and novel idea. In the street below, who would expect that a man had fallen on the top of the building. As to who was the queen of the carnival will ever remain a secret. No one knew; even the king had no knowledge of her pedigree, but she was there.

OLD MAN HURT AT SAN LEANDRO.

Attempted to Get on a Moving Car and Was Thrown to the Ground.

SAN LEANDRO, July 5.—Yesterday afternoon Walter Healy, an elderly gentleman, while attempting to board a rapidly moving car, was thrown violently to the ground. He sustained a gash on the forehead which bled quite freely. When the accident occurred, Mr. Healy and his family were on their way to Haywards where they intended visiting the park. The man when picked up, though not unconscious was quite dazed and presented a very gory sight with the blood streaming down his face. He was assisted to a drug store where the wound was dressed. Mr. Healy is from San Francisco.
